The Board of Trustees of the Jacob Edwards Library feel that, in the death of Mabel W. Plimpton, they have lost a valuable library assistant, who, in her many years of service in the library, was always trustworthy, faithful and efficient. With a true love for good books, and a desire to foster in others, especially children, this same love for good books, she worked on, almost to the last, with continued interest and enthusiasm.

Whatever was asked of her, she did willingly and
